Focus on Chamber Businesses: Jackie's Floral Shop

Jackie's Floral Shop goes out of its way to help families and friends share a little bit of love and beauty on important days.

“For Memorial Day (or any time) we have people call and we will go and decorate the grave because they just can't get back,” said Jackie Stoltz owner of Jackie's Floral Center. “We service the funeral home and health center so it's convenient for our customers.”

When you shop and buy at Jackie's Floral your supporting local business and getting top quality products. This small town shop has lots of big city charm with trends that they pick up from attending design shows and by adding their own professional creative allure.

Jackie's Floral became a store in 1982 when the previous owners were moving. This long standing store takes pride in quality and customer satisfaction.

“We love for people to browse and if you don't see something, ask... you never know what we have upstairs or in the backroom.”
